

Jewelry Badge Day

What: Complete all requirements for the

Hosted by Cadette Level Troop 7161 as part of Heather Abrams' Silver Award Project

“Jeweler” Badge in one afternoon!

- Learn the basics of jewelry making
- Make your own jewelry to keep using high quality materials
- Learn about different jewelry-making techniques, tools, and materials
- Participate in an easy jewelry-related service project for the Jewelry Club at Arcadia Mental Health Center, a county mental health facility for low-income adults with severe and persistent mental health disorders

Who: This event is available to all Junior Level Girl Scouts Space is limited to 30 girls, filled on a 1st come, 1st served basis.

Cost: $15 material fee (includes snack and drink) plus a donation to “used jewelry drive” to complete service project requirement. [Bring new or used beaded jewelry or beads to be donated to the Arcadia Mental Health Center’s “Jewelry Club” for adults with severe and persistent mental illness. Broken items are welcomed.]

Date, Time, and Location: Saturday, April 3, 2010, 1-5 P.M.
Montrose Program Center [2732 Montrose Avenue, Montrose]

RSVP by 3/25/10 to: Heather Abrams, 3316 Paraiso Way, La Crescenta, CA 91214, (818)957-7176, email: mark.abrams@att.net

Cancellation policy: deadline for cancellations with refund must be made no later than March 27.